

[London, 1883]
[UCL Spec.Coll. Textile Box, Signature: 103]

[Text testimonial:]

Alliance
British and Foreign
Life and Fire Assurance Company, Bartholomew Lane, London.

The Members of the Staff of the Alliance British and Foreign Life and Fire Assurance Company desire to offer their sincere congratulations to Sir Moses Montefiore, Bart., F.R.S., the honoured President and one of the Founders of the Company, on the Ninety-ninth Anniversary of his Birthday, with their best wishes for his health and happiness.

They desire also to place on record on the present occasion (as it has been their privilege to do on so many previous occasions) an expression of their warm attachment to their esteemed President, from whom they have received so much distinguished kindness and consideration.

[Signature:]

R. Lewis Chief Secretary
On behalf of the Staff.

November 8th,
1883

Description:

n/a paper in blue textile case single page

ink

professional scribe

beautifully decorated and colourful document, very similar to all the other British documents

Upper part of the document: two medallions, the one on the left hand side is the coat of arms of the Montefiore family, and the one of the right hand side is the coat of arms of the Life and Fire Insurance Company with its motto "Multi Societate Tutiores."