Alliance Assurance Company

Edinburgh, 22nd October 1884.

Sir Moses Montefiore, Bart., F.R.S.

Sir,

We, the members of the Edinburgh Board of the Alliance Assurance Company, beg to offer you our hearty congratulations on the completion of your hundredth year.

Although he have the privilege more particularly of addressing you in consequence of our connection with the "Alliance" Office – an Institution to which you have rendered most important services since its formation sixty years ago – we cannot forget that your name is even more widely known and held in honour in connection with deeds of philanthropy and beneficence.

Notwithstanding that you have already reached an age which is rarely attained we trust that you may yet be spared for some time, in the enjoyment of good health, and that the closing period of your life may be rendered happy by the knowledge that your prolonged exertions in the cause of humanity have not been in vain.

Signed on behalf of the Board
